

LITERARY NOTES.

Only the MS. of the first volume of Thurlow Weed's autobiography is complete; the rest of it is a collection of fragments. Anthony Trollope's story of "Mr. Scarborough's Family," now appearing serially in All the Year Round, was completed before his death.

Miss Louisa Alcott records in The Boston Saturday Evening Gazette that her first story brought her $5 and her second $10, with a request for more of her productions. "One of the memorial moments of my life," she adds, "is that in which I trusted to the pen."

Mr. Theo. L. De Vinne has given his name to the firm which he has long been connected with, and which, as Francis Hart & Co., has done so much admirable printing. The beauties and niceties of its work, it may safely be predicted, will only increase under the management of this accomplished printer.

Mr. Whittier is quoted by a writer in the forthcoming Harper as saying that Hawthorne once mentioned the "House of the Seven Gables" to him: "and then he said the story was about half finished, and to use his own words," continued Whittier with a peculiar smile, "it darkens dimly."

All the rare and beautiful editions of Rabulus disposed of at the sale of the Sunderland Library have gone to French collectors. "The New Abeland," a new "wert Buchanan's latest novel, is said to deal with religious questions.

MINES AND MINING.

A fair amount of business to-day was done in mining stocks, and prices generally were a little better. Elko attracted some attention at 10 1/2 cents. Chrysolite again was better at 1.40, and Robinson after 1.15 was steady at 1.20. Sierra Grande rose to 2.40. The low price stocks were generally 1 or 2 cents higher.

The Deadwood Terra Mining Company has declared a dividend of $20,000 for the month of December, payable at the office of Lovansky & Haggen, transfer agents, No. 18 Wall-st., on January 20. Transfer books close on January 15.
